GILLETTE GIVEN LEAD IN HALF OF IOWA DISTRICTS

Nomination Over 'Inner Circle' New Deal Candidate Is Conceded

GETS 50% OF VOTE

All of His Opponents Pledged 100% Co-operation With F. D. R. Administration

By Darrell Carwood
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
DES MOINES, Ia., June 7.—(INS)—A smashing accolade was given United States Senator Guy M. Gillette (D), who opposed President Roosevelt's Supreme Court reform bill, in returns today from the bitterly-fought Iowa primary election.

Gillette's re-nomination, over the opposition of what was called an "inner circle" of the New Deal, was conceded today by the camp of Rep. Otha D. Wearin, who ran with the endorsement of WPA Administrator Harry L. Hopkins.

With more than half the ballots counted, it appeared that Gillette had polled more than 50 per cent of the total Democratic vote against four other candidates, and had approached 2 to 1 lead over Wearin.

Returns from 1,446 of the State's 2,447 precincts gave: Gillette, 49,618; Wearin, 26,720.

First of the anti-Court reform Senators to face an election test on that issue, Senator Gillette won his overwhelming victory on the flat declaration that he would never turn into a "blindfolded" legislator, committed to support Administration legislation.

All of his opponents had pledged 100 per cent co-operation with the Administration. Red-necked Congressman Wearin had claimed wholehearted New Deal support, and often offered to a telegram in which James Roosevelt, son of the President, called Wearin "my friend."

On the Republican side, white-haired former Senator Lester J. Dickinson, "Hell Raisin' Dick" to his constituents and for years the New Deal's most outspoken critic, piled up an apparently invincible lead for the O. P. Senatorial nomination.

This would make Dickinson, who rooks no compromise with New Deal theories, and Gillette, who voted for most important New Deal measures than the Court Bill, opponents in the Fall election.

Dickinson's lead over Rep. Lloyd Thurston this morning was approximately 26,000 votes, with half the ballots counted.

Two Men Hurt; Are Thrown From The Rear of A Truck

Two Philadelphians were injured Sunday evening, when the truck in which they were riding with a group of picnickers, swerved at the corner of Bristol Pike and Park avenue, the two being thrown from the stepladder on which they were seated, to the highway.

The injured: Louis Sangler, 1929 Berkshire street, Philadelphia; and John Fisher, 4563 Lackawanna street, Philadelphia. The former was treated for contusions of the back of the head and nose, he then being dismissed from Harriman Hospital. Fisher was treated at the office of a physician in Andalusia.

The driver of the truck was Joseph G. Heck, Philadelphia, and a party of 10 or 12 occupied the vehicle. Officer Harris, of Oxford Valley barracks, Pennsylvania Motor Police, investigated the accident. No arrests were made.

GALLAGHER PITCHES BRISTOL TO CHAMPIONSHIP

High School Wins Crown in Lower Division of Lower Bucks County Group

FINAL SCORE IS 4 TO 2

Bill Gallagher, star southpaw and ace of Coach Steve Juenger's Cardinal and Gray mound staff, pitched and batted his team to its second consecutive championship of the lower division of the Lower Bucks County League on Landreth's field yesterday afternoon when Bristol High tripped the Langhorne Redskins, 4-2, in the play-off game for the sectional title of the Bucco loop.

The Cardinal ace chalked up his fourth straight victory without a setback in the game, a triumph that was clean-cut and well earned. He allowed the opposition a measly three bingles, struck out eight and passed three. Besides that he laced out a long home-run to deep right in the third inning to give Bristol a lead they never lost. Gallagher would have scored a shut-out over the Redskins if his mates hadn't miscued behind him to pave the way for both the Beckmen's tallies.

Here and There in Bucks County Towns

Buckingham High School's popular athletic coach, Dick Hassler, 23, of York, Pa., is in a serious condition in the Lancaster General Hospital as a result of an automobile accident on the Lincoln Highway near Lancaster, it was reported by Supervising Principal Chapman Carver, of Buckingham, on Saturday.

Coach Hassler was returning to his home for the week-end when his car was struck by another car to which a trailer was attached. The impact overturned Hassler's car. Hassler was rushed to the Lancaster General Hospital where it was reported that he had spent a very restless night.

Hassler's injuries include a severe head injury, a possible fracture of the right leg, numerous body bruises and lacerations. His injuries are such an extent that he will not be able to continue for the balance of the school season in athletic supervision.

During a meeting of the New Hope School Board it was decided to adopt a regular physical culture program, and to employ a teacher who can qualify as athletic director. Several applicants were considered.

Since the high school baseball team, after trying for first place in the school league, was dropped for lack of faculty representation at games, there has been considerable controversy about a definite athletic program for the school. The board members are striving to do all that is possible without materially increasing the budget to supply the needs.

Melvin Schaller is serving a sentence of 30 days in the Bucks County Prison for driving while drunk, and Corporal William Herman, of the Pennsylvania Motor Police, charged him with the theft of four chickens from the farm of Frank S. Schmoeyer, Spinnerstown, alleged to have been committed in May.

Police say that Schaller has confessed to the Schmoeyer theft and they are now investigating a report that Schaller might have been connected with several chicken thefts in Lehigh county.

The committee in charge of the plans for the observance of Independence Day in Sellersville and Perkasie has decided upon the evening of Tuesday, July 5th, as the time of the program and display of fireworks on the consolidated school campus.

This date was selected after a lengthy discussion, in which it was pointed out that with July 4th falling on a Monday this year, many persons will take advantage of the three-day week-end holiday period for trips and

MORRISVILLE BOARD SETS SCHOOL TAX RATE

Rate for Real Estate is Set at 25 Mills on the Dollar, and Per Capita of $3.00

ADOPT THE BUDGET

MORRISVILLE, June 7.—The school tax rate for 1938-39 was set at 25 mills on the dollar and the per capita tax at $3 at a meeting of the Board of Education. This is the same rate that has been in effect for the past few years.

The budget, which was set tentatively last month, was adopted. It calls for an income of $112,555 and expenditures of a like amount. The anticipated receipts are $61,222 from property taxes for 1938-39; $5,670 from delinquent taxes; $20,280 from State appropriation, and $1,500 from tuition.

Among the expenditures, $59,700 is set aside for instructional service. This includes salaries, textbooks, supplies and provides for the payment of the annual increments to the teachers as provided by the State law. Under capital outlay $3,500 is provided and this calls for the improvements of grounds, purchase of new furniture and equipment. In this department it is proposed to purchase additional seats to take care of the increased enrollment which will be caused by the compulsory school age being raised from 16 to 17 years. It also provides for the purchase of additional machines for the shop to take care of the boys from the eighth to tenth grades who are in this department. New science equipment will also be purchased and also a machine for testing the eyes of children, which will detect the eye defects in regards to reading.

For the debt service, $15,775 is set aside. This calls for the redemption of bonds and the payment of interest. The retirement fund and insurance will cost $2,390.

For maintenance, $3,000 is provided. For the operation of the school plant, $10,395 is listed for salaries of janitors, cost of light, power, fuel, care of grounds and janitors' supplies. For auxiliary agencies, $1,025 is scheduled, and $2,300 for fixed charges.

Store Open.—Due to our June sale, all this week, McCrory's 5 & 10c store will be open all day Wednesday. Specials in every department.—(Advertisement.)

Tension Increases

Paris, June 7.—Tension rose along the Franco-Spanish border today as a result of border violation by war planes from Spain. On one of their flights over French territory, the raiders dropped bombs on a French railroad. While French troops were rushed to the new danger area, Premier Daladier made a tour of inspection of the area and defenses and then announced:

"Reinforcements are enroute to the frontier which will be guarded in the future." Further troop movements were expected today.

Many Congratulate Hague

Jersey City, N. J., June 7.—Congratulatory messages floated in to Mayor Frank Hague today, following his mighty demonstration against radicalism in which 200,000 persons took part. Mayor Hague led a mile-long parade last night to Journal Square. He carried an American flag and was followed by thousands of war veterans, national guardsmen, Gold Star Mothers, business men and representatives of social and civic clubs.

Obviously pleased by the demonstration, Hague declared: "The demonstration showed the Reds that the people are with me. This is the only answer to radicalism. The Reds think that because people are poor they are radicals, but this parade shows them something."

Circus May Close

Pittsburgh, June 7.—The Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey circus, the "greatest show on earth," today faces an uncertain future, with the possibility of a complete shutdown growing greater and greater.

Although more than 1600 employees of the circus, including actors and performers, unanimously voted against a 25% wage cut, John Ringling North, the principal owner, announced that unless the wage cut is made the circus would be no more.

France Protests To Japan

Tokyo, June 7.—French Ambassador Charles Henry today protested to the Japanese Foreign Office against the Japanese air attacks east of Canton, in which a French hospital was damaged, according to the Japanese official news agency.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

Washington, June 6. IN the last few years demagoguery in this country has reached the stage where every effort to halt the dangerous and useless waste of public funds is met by the outrageous charge of indifference to the starving and freezing of the distressed unemployed.

There is no sense in being indirect or mealy mouthed about these things and, humiliating as it is to record, this discreditable and unworthy method of meeting opposition originated with the President of the United States. Its repetition all down the New Deal line has been White House inspired. It has been—and is—one of the great political weapons of the Administration. Its efficacy is about equal to its falseness.

MORE THAN anything else it has kept down Congressional opposition to these vast unregulated and unrestricted expenditures. More than anything else it is responsible for the passage in the Senate last week of the new spending-lending bill, in the soundness of which, it is accurate to say, not ten of the eighty-odd Senators who voted for it believe. Fear of being put on the spot as "more concerned about property rights than human rights" (one of Mr. Roosevelt's earliest and most favored phrases, coined for him by the ingenious Mr. Thomas Corcoran, who came to Washington from Wall Street) has kept in line for New Deal policies a whole lot of week-kneed statesmen who

178 TO GRADUATE FROM HIGH SCHOOLS IN AREA

Bristol and Bensalem High Schools Have Commencement Programs Tonight

EXCELLENT PROJECTS

A total of 178 will graduate from two high schools in this area this evening. At the Grand Theatre 94 young women and young men who have completed courses at Bristol high school will receive diplomas; while in Bensalem Township high school auditorium Cornwells Heights, 84 will receive their diplomas.

The Grundy medal, bestowed upon the member of the senior class of Bristol high school attaining the highest average for four years of high school work, will be presented to Miss Jean V. Rosser, when commencement exercises are held this evening.

Only 58 of a point separate the first and second honor students, the second honors being secured by Doris M. Mershon, and Miss Kathryn M. Quinn, attaining third honors. The marks for the four-year course were: Miss Rosser, 90.98; Miss Mershon, 90.40; Miss Quinn, 88.34.

Ninety-four young women and young men will be presented with diplomas by Keith Rosser, vice-president of the school board. Mr. Rosser will also present the Grundy medal.

The theme of the program will be "The Constitution and Our National Development." Greetings will be offered by Stanley Dick, class president. "The Background of the Constitution" will be presented by Miss Quinn; excerpts from speeches of the Constitutional Convention by members of the class; "The Framing and the Operation of the Constitution," Miss Mershon, and "Constitutional Development and Its Meaning Today," Miss Rosser.

Raymond Dewees, Jr., will read his essay which secured for him the $10 prize offered by the Mothers' Association of Bristol public schools. Awards will be given for outstanding endeavor in many lines, these being bestowed by the Mothers' and the Fathers' Associations. The high school chorus will give selections, and the orchestra will play.

Two members of the class, Miss Elvera Paglione and Russell Subers, have had perfect attendance records for their 12 years of school.

The commencement project for Bensalem Township high school program will be "The Founding of Pennsylvania," with the introduction by Robert MacFarland, and the pageant participated in by members of the graduating class. The time covered by the tableaux is from 1624 to 1642.

Program numbers also include: Professional, "Hope March" (Papini), school orchestra; invocation, the Rev. Howard Oursler, pastor of Cornwells Heights Methodist Church; music, "Night Song" (Charles Williams), and "Orpheus" (Gluck), orchestra; vocal solo, "Indian Dawn" (Zamecnik), Erna Letterle; senior ensemble, "Trees" (Rasbach-Deis); address, "Youth Looking Forward," Dr. Charles S. REVOKE LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION IN BURD ESTATE

Late Head of Burd School, Bedminster, Bequeaths Money, Personal Items

RELATIVES ARE NAMED

John Hottle, Springfield Twp., Leaves Personal Estate of $10,000

DOYLESTOWN, June 7.—When a will was offered for probate in the Register of Wills' office, here, in the estate of Lucy M. Burd, head of the Burd School, Bedminster, for many years, letters of administration, which had been granted, were revoked, according to Deputy Register of Wills Harry S. Hobensack.

Miss Burd, who executed the will June 2, 1925, left a personal estate of $2500. Hiram Michener, of North Wales, was named executor.

Individual bequests follow: Jennie M. Bishop, a niece, books and book cases; Ida B. Michener, a niece, diamond and pearl pin; Anna Burd Leidy, bureau, which is a family heirloom; Catharine Burd, $200; Amelia B. Hickey, $1000; William Stevens, Philadelphia, $100; Leah Slotter, Lawson, $200; Jennie M. Bishop, $500; Carrie Morris, $500; and Emma Case Kirk, $50.

The residue of the estate will be inherited by a sister, Amelia Burd Hickey, and a brother, Henry Burd.

Alfred C. McKeown, 1917 North 7th street, Philadelphia, was granted the letters of administration in the estate of Jane M. McKeown, Doylestown, amounting to a personal estate of $2500. There were no other heirs.

Leaving a personal estate of $10,000, John Hottle, Springfield township, bequeathed $100 to the Lutheran congregation of Trinity Church, Springfield township, to be used by the cemetery fund. Frederick Hottle and Clinton Hottle were named executors.

Confirmation Service and Sermon Occur in Croydon

CROYDON, June 7.—Five were received into membership of St. Luke's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Sunday morning, by confirmation, and one member by confession of faith.

Those confirmed were: Margaret Barth, Anna Mary Woolvin, Raymond Puma, Elwood Kasperitis and Warren Jester. Anna Bailey was received by confession of faith.

The pastor, the Rev. T. Kohlmeier, based his sermon on Acts 1:8: "Ye shall be witnesses unto Me." There were 122 present at the service. In his sermon the pastor said, in part: "The words, 'Ye shall be witnesses unto Me,' were spoken by Jesus to His disciples shortly before He left them and ascended into heaven. Jesus had, as it were, drafted these disciples into His army as recruits when He called them to discipleship. Then followed a three-year period of training and 'drilling' to fit these soldiers for the spiritual warfare they were to carry on under the leadership of their great Captain, Jesus Christ. On the day of His ascension Jesus commissioned His disciples and sent them out into all the world as His ambassadors. Before they began their actual work of witnessing for Christ the disciples were to receive their spiritual armor and weapons through the Holy Spirit. Who was poured out upon them on the great day of Pentecost."

strength of the Holy Ghost these former weak, uneducated, untaught disciples became bold, courageous confessors of Christ.

"We might compare confirmation to such a commission conferred by the Lord upon His disciples today. When you were first made a Christian you were drafted as a recruit into the army of Christ. Then followed a period of training in Sunday School and particularly also during the last two or three years of intensive 'drilling' in the Catechism instruction. The blessing of God the Holy Ghost is today pronounced upon you, and in His strength, equipped by His spiritual gifts, you are to go out as loyal soldiers of the cross and be witnesses for Christ."

Organization Session Is Arranged For Peace League

THE FISHERMEN'S THREAT

The rest of the country has paid so little attention to the Alaska fisheries dispute with Japan that the news of threatened armed assaults by American fishermen against Japanese vessels is made doubly shocking.

The U. S. Coast Guard, we presume, will know how to deal with this rash enterprise, in which a leading Seattle fishing company and a labor union openly are implicated. It should be understood, however, that the provocation for the threatened assault is extremely aggravated and that its suppression will have to be accompanied by very strong diplomatic representations to Japan to cure the cause.

It must be made plain to the Japanese government that the primary blame will be on its shoulders if incidents should result, either now or in future, to jeopardize friendly relations.

The basis of the dispute is a little hard to understand because it rests on an American assertion of a "superior interest and claim" in Alaska salmon resources, even outside the three-mile limit of territorial waters. This claim is based, however, on the natural habits of the salmon, which breeds in inland streams. Its justice has been recognized by the Japanese government, the very existence of the salmon fisheries being due in large measure to the work of fish hatcheries maintained at great expense by the United States.

Further to conserve this chief resource of Alaska territory, the Federal Government has imposed severe restrictions on the salmon industry, limiting the fishing season, the size, character and location of nets, etc. It is the violation of these restrictions by Japanese vessels operating in plain sight of land that has so enraged American fishermen.

The Japanese government, which licenses all fishing vessels flying its flag, has undertaken heretofore to prohibit their taking salmon in Alaska waters. But this prohibition has not been enforced, in spite of repeated State Department protests, which have included airplane photographs of Japanese crab-canning craft with salmon lying on their decks.

Such poaching easily can be prevented and the Japanese must be required to fulfill their responsibility in the matter. Otherwise, there sooner or later will be serious trouble.

SAFETY SCRIBES

In its safety campaign among school children, the New York police have enlisted the aid of Mother Goose and a department parodist, a jingling patrolman named Dave Eisinger, whose rhymes are posted on seven-foot signs near playgrounds and schools so all the running children may read. Here is one of his masterpieces, offered in the hope that it may inspire local police talent to emulate, mayhap excel.

Humpty Dumpty had a great fright,
All the king's horses and all the king's men
Couldn't get him to cross against the light again.*

That last line lags a step or so and ought to start any number of police poet laureates scribbling better and better verses.

Television No Menace to These Radio Beauties

Jackie Gately

Jean Rogers

Elvira Rios

Advent of television should cause no alarm among these stunning radio beauties. They are among the school of young performers who are now being trained for the forthcoming "radio movies." Jackie Gately, left, besides being a singer and Broadway night club star, won her first fame as a hog caller—of all things—being declared champion of Yell county, Arkansas. Jean Rogers, center, is a radio and film starlet who hails from Belmont, Mass., and went to Hollywood in 1933 after winning a beauty contest. Elvira Rios, right, has just come from Mexico to join the ranks of NBC radio performers and does a program of folk songs from Old Mexico.

Three new songs, written by one of Hollywood's best known teams, will be heard for the first time in the new Dorothy Lamour-Ray Milland Technicolor romance, "Her Jungle Love," at the Bristol Theatre. They are: "Jungle Love," "Coffee and Kisses" and "Love Light in the Starlight," from the pens of Ralph Freed and Frederick Hollander, who wrote the recent hit, "Moonlight and Shadows," introduced by Miss Lamour and Milland in their "Jungle Princess."

In addition to the new popular tunes, genuine native melodies and chants, gathered from Samoa and other sub-tropical isles, form the musical background of "Her Jungle Love." Under the direction of Boris Morros, old South Seas love songs and battle chants were adapted for inclusion in the picture and furnish a realknow a lot better in their heads and distrust the whole Roosevelt program in their hearts.

IT IS this fear that last week made Senators disregard the somewhat startling facts cited to them about this new spending program and induced so many of them to go on record as favoring a renewal of a recovery policy in the success of which they have not the slightest faith. Now that the President, after employment of the full White House weight, has gotten through this bill, defeating every effort to restrict him as to expenditure and killing the amendment to take relief money out of politics, perhaps it will be possible to get some sober consideration of what the new program really means so far as money is concerned. The figures were presented by Senator Byrd and others late at night in the Senate session. They got little or no attention, but they should have had a lot, because they are pretty grim.

FOR EXAMPLE, this isn't, as the Administration has proclaimed, a two-and-a-half-billion-dollar bill—it's a five-and-a-half-billion-dollar bill. The details are as follows:

For relief, until February 28, 1939—$1,714,905,000.

For relief, from February 28, 1939 to July 1, 1939—$859,000,000.

For expansion of credit, $1,500,000,000.

For public works, $1,500,000,000. And it must not be overlooked, as Mr. Byrd pointed out, that this $5,500,000,000 is pyramided on the regular budget, making a total authorized disbursement for spending and lending in the fiscal year of 1939 of twelve and a half billion dollars. By a large margin this is the greatest peacetime expenditure on record. It means that the deficit next year will exceed five billion, which will beat all records for deficits, exceeding by nearly a billion the next largest deficit, which was in 1936, when most of the soldiers' bonus was paid.

TO the extent that the Treasury estimated revenue from taxes in 1939 is not realized, this five billion deficit will be increased. It may be much larger. In any event, it means that on July 1, 1939, the direct debt of the United States will reach a new peak of forty-three billion, which, with five and a half billion of guaranteed obligations issued by Government corporations, will make a total debt of forty-eight billion, as compared to twenty-one billion on March 1, 1933. So, if the spending-lending program is pursued as now planned, three peacetime records will be established next year—first, there will be the largest expenditure of money in the history of this nation; second, there will be the largest deficit in its history; third, the debt will be greater than ever before in its history. And each of these records will have been achieved in pursuit of a policy which has already been tried and failed. The situation thus created has not heretofore existed in the United States. Its menace to the national safety is obvious. No one has dwelt more strongly upon the danger of doing exactly what is being done than the man now responsible for doing it—to wit, Mr. Roosevelt, which, perhaps, does not make sense, but is none the less true.

(By T. M. Juno)

With every bout filled with excitement and action galore, fight fans of this vicinity were treated to another excellent boxing show last night at the St. Ann's arena as the St. Ann's organization conducted their weekly outdoor affair.

Every fan who attended the padded mitts show went home well satisfied that for the second consecutive week they were given a first-class show as arranged by Matchmaker Johnny Straffe with the sanction of the Middle Atlantic district of the A. A. U.

The local fight patrons saw Vince Della, St. Ann's southpaw, bring down the curtain on his amateur boxing career by coping a three-round decision over Carl Moss, colored fighter from Wharton.

In his career's finale, Della carried each of the three rounds and on several occasions had the colored youth bending over from hard shots to the stomach. Moss was clever and many of Della's blows glanced off his shoulders but he was hurt plenty. In the second, Moss recuperated from a hard left to the stomach and shook up Della with a right to the jaw.

Another localite who made good in winning a decision was the shoe-maker, Joe Ferrara, St. Ann's. Ferrara took a hairline decision from Angelo Salvatore, Penmar. In fact, the result was so close that Matchmaker Straffe immediately rematched the boys after the bout.

Ferrara had to do some rallying to cop the decision for the Philadelphia took the first round and spilled Joe when he ran into a fight. The Bristolian won the final two rounds by close margins and landed his best punch in the third which staggered his opponent. It was a right to the chin, landed solidly.

The youngster who was runner-up in the Eastern district A. A. U. open tournament, Rocco Piccinini, Penmar, had his hands full with the Croydon boxer, Hokey Leighton. Even though he lost the decision, Leighton deserves plenty of credit for he exchanged blow for blow with the Penmar representative. The Croydonite got in many good blows and actually outfought Piccinini in the infighting. Piccinini had better timing and made most of his blows count.

Leighton was sent to the floor in the final round and took a short count which did a little damage to the scoring of points. It was after Rocco had made good with a one-two punch that Leighton stood up and was caught with a straight right to the jaw and down he went.

The "hit of last week's show," Russell Pearson, St. Ann's, failed to finish the first round in his bout with Jesse Cotton, Ontario. Cotton did the job quick for he put the St. Ann's colored fighter on the canvas for a five count immediately after the bell and then put the finishing touches after he rose.

Jimmy Lefferts, Ontario, had an easy victory when he fought Mattiacci, unattached, quit fighting in the second round. Mattiacci was putting up a good fight until Lefferts let loose with several hard jabs which hurt and this seemed to be too much for the unattached boy. The first round was fairly even.

The first bout of the night between Tony Baglio, Penmar, and Adger

Jackson, Wharton, only lasted two minutes. Jackson could not absorb Tony's punches to the jaw and he ended up sprawled on the mat. He was floored for a count of six, previous to the fatal blow.

The judges had quite a bit of difficulty in judging the clever fight between Albert DiCapri, Penmar, and Robert Frazier, Ontario. These boys showed a world of experience and most of their fighting was done at long range with jabbing predominating. Frazier's counter-punching, especially in the final round was the margin of triumph.

The bout between Louis Spino, unattached, and George Shull, Burlington, who represents the Penmar club, lived up to all expectations. Shull, a lanky youth, had a big advantage in reach over Spino and made good use of an effective jab. Spino had a job getting to Shull but once on the inside out-fought the Jersey boy. In the second, Spino won the round and made Shull look bad by a spirited rally towards the close of the session and twice landed telling blows on Shull's face.

The Burlington boy won the third and first rounds and in the last set to shook up Spino with an uppercut while the latter was leaning on the ropes.

The bouts will continue next Monday night.

ROHM & HAAS NINE POUND WHYNO TO WIN

BRISTOL TWILIGHT LEAGUE

Schedule for Tonight—
ODD FELLOWS—SUPERIOR
(Leodon's field)
Umpire, Kervick; scorer, Juno
GRUNDY'S—ST. ANN'S
(Grundy's field)
Umpire, Della; scorer, Dolan

Pounding Charlie Whyno, in the first two innings, the Rohm and Haas nine gained a full game on the pace-setting St. Ann's team last evening on the Rohm and Haas diamond, by trimming the Saints, 6-4.

Five runs were garnered off the St. Ann's pitcher in the first and he can attribute the runs to no one but himself for it was two bad errors that he committed that sent the chemical workers on the scoring spree. After the chemical mixers scored another in the second to take a commanding lead, Whyno was replaced by the youthful, Pat McGahan. It was a shame to waste such good pitching that McGahan exhibited. He retired the Maple Beach nine without a run in four innings and the only hit made off his delivery was a beat-out ball to second.

Eddie Sullivan was the triumphant pitcher. He had eight strikeouts and was on the spot on many occasions. He was solved for eight hits.

Jimmy Massilla boosted his average considerably with two singles in two official trips to the plate. He walked in his first appearance.

The two clubs will meet again Wednesday night on St. Ann's field. A victory for Andy Pfaffenrath's boys in this contest will throw the Bristol Twilight League in a free-for-all with four teams having a chance to win the first half.

"PUNK" ZEFFRIES WINS FOR SUPERIOR ZINC NINE

"Punkie" Zeffries defeated the Grundy ball team last night on the latter's field. Zeffries was the whole works as the Superior Zinc nine came through with its fourth victory of the first half. Final score was: Superior Zinc, 9; Grundy's, 7.

After the game was deadlocked at 7-all by Grundy's scoring of four runs in the fifth, Zeffries stepped to the plate with the sacks loaded and two out, and crashed out a hit which scored the winning runs. In Grundy's turn with the stick, Punkie went to the mound for the zinc smelters and using his fast ball, fanned the side.

Plenty of errors and passes marred the game. The Superior team committed five misplays and the woolen workers, two. Antonelli walked eight batters. The Superior pitchers walked four and hit one.

Jesse Vanzant, Grundy's catcher, scored a home run in the third inning with the sacks bare. Vandine, Stromp and Zeffries hurled for the winners with Stromp getting credit for the victory.

EDGELY A. C. VICTORS OVER EAST FALLS NINE

The Edgely A. C. chalked up another victory last evening on its diamond, defeating the East Falls team, 5-4, in a closely fought battle. A hit by Walterick with Felkner and Bergman on base in the final inning gave the Edgelyites the triumph.

The winning hurler was Francis Moon who despite his wildness pitched exceptionally well. He struck out seven and walked four. Errors and loose fielding made his job harder and almost spelled defeat as the visitors were leading, 4-3, going in the last half of the last frame.

Bessett pitched for East Falls, striking out six and walking a quintet of batters.

the Redskins, who had pitched his team to seven victories in eight games in the circuit and thus earned the right to meet Bristol for the sectional title. Previous to yesterday, McCahan had scored one victory and was defeated once in tilts with Bristol. This marked his second loss in nine games he pitched this year and both were at the hands of the Cardinals. Bill was solved for eight safe blows by the local lads but he fanned as many and issued nary a free ticket to first.

Yesterday's game was the third in which the league's best pitchers, Gallagher and McCahan, were pitted against each other. Gallagher scored triumphs in two, while the other ended in a tie. Bristol's ace beat McCahan, 2-1, in eight innings, and 4-2. The other game was that famous 12-inning 0-0 tie in which the Redskin hurler turned in a no-hit, no-run game without scoring a victory.

Bristol will now engage in a 3-game series with the Buckingham Buccaneers, winners of the upper division, for the championship over the entire circuit.

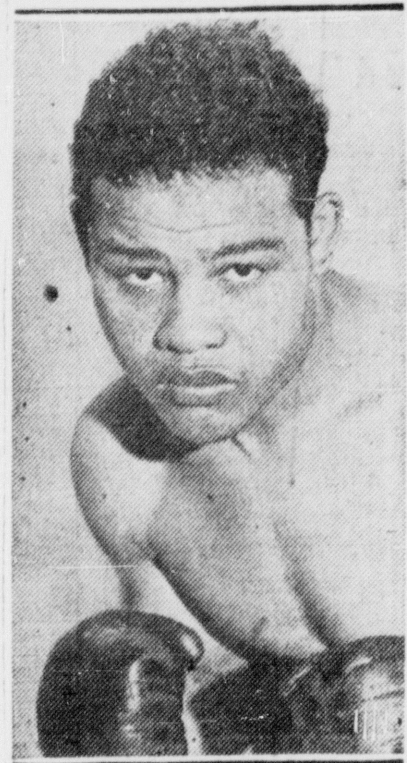

Six of the Cards' eight hits were bunched to score all their runs. They hopped off to a 1-0 lead with their initial tally in the first half of the second chapter. Stanley Dick opened with a line single to center, then Wilbur Van Lenten followed up with another clean wallop to left. Both runners advanced as Harding tossed out Leinhouser, and Dick counted when Bob Hopf threw "Boake" Carter's grounder to the plate too late to catch the Bristol outfielder.

That run in the third was the result of Bill Gallagher's smashing drive that went far over Tom Carney's head in deep right field and went down the small embankment across the driveway, allowing Bill to complete the circuit easily.

That tally broke a 1-1 tie and gave Bristol a lead they never lost, although they had to extend it to gain the triumph. This they did by adding a pair of runs to the total in the seventh to definitely sew up the tilt.

In that frame, Carl Leinhouser opened with a clean hit over second, then proceeded to piffle the keystone sack immediately. He moved to third while Carter was being thrown out, and slid safely over the plate when Hopf again threw to the plate too late on Jack Louder's grounder. Louder also stole second and crossed on hits by Pete DeLuca and Jack Spencer, the latter chasing Louder over with the final marker.

To open the Redskins' scoring in the second, Bill McCahan drove a hot smash toward right that glanced off Carter's glove, but Spencer, backing up, snared the ball and tossed out the hitter, but when Carter dropped the pill, he was declared safe. Bob Hopf and Walt Houser followed with clean hits to admit the Langhorne hurler. However, Gallagher settled down to retire the side handily without further trouble.

In the seventh, Hopf was again safe on Van Lenten's overthrow, and after the next two batters went down easily, Jack Harding bounced a single off Hardy Johnson's glove into center-field to count Hopf. Reed received a pass but the game ended when Harding was thrown out trying to steal third.
